About

I'm a product design leader with 12+ years of experience building digital products with cross-functional teams in emerging technologies.

I'm known for:

- Using design thinking to identify strategic product opportunities
- Breaking down abstract complexities into clear, actionable roadmaps
- Delivering exceptional customer experiences that are aligned with business goals and produce measurable impact

I have an authentic leadership style and help design teams mature by mentoring designers, elevating craft, and creating systems with clear expectations that make teams more effective.

Experience

Code4rena

Lead Product Designer • Apr 2024–Mar 2025, Raleigh, NC (Remote)

Led product and design of software security auditing platform where researchers compete for bounties.

- Hosted audits for financial organizations with $40B+ in user funds, generating $6M+ payouts to security researchers.
- Spearheaded launch of customer web app, improving customer review speed by 49%, speed to deliver final report by 20%, and reducing most common customer complaint of process confusion to near zero.
- Worked with executive leadership to facilitate strategic product roadmapping, define product scope, and oversee development, user feedback, and analysis of performance metrics.
- Led a team of 6–8 engineers and designers, and individually contributed alongside to design interfaces, UX flows, and prototypes.
- Improved team efficiency and quality of output by standardizing processes for sprint planning and issue tracking, product documentation, and asynchronous written communication.

- Built products for enterprise clients, startups, and nonprofits, serving hundreds of thousands of users across various industries, including commercial unmanned aircraft systems (UAS), agriculture, and national governing bodies for youth sports.
- Developed user personas, created wireframes and UX flows, and designed UI for learning management platform for NFHS, the leading high school athletics coaching association, serving 60+ courses to over 19.5k high schools and 12M students in all 50 states.

Testimonials

"Kevin is exactly the designer you want on your team. Smart, low ego, comfortable with ambiguity and responsibility. He never shies away from complexity and always delivers elegant solutions. 5/5 would love to work with Kevin again, no notes."

– Travis S., Design Director

"Kevin has a really clear drive to win and a humble collaborative attitude that has made working with him a joy, and from day one with us, has focused on fastest time-to-customer-value."

– Adam A., CEO

"I wanted to acknowledge how great it's been getting to work with you. You came in at a time when I think a lot of us were feeling a little burnt out and you brought such a fresh energy and enthusiasm to everything. That's no small thing. You were exactly the right person, with the right energy and focus, to improve our product at a time when it was really needed, and it was great to see how fast you brought things to a better place."

– Amy T., Head of Marketing

"Thank you so much for writing this up, Kevin—as always, you've distilled the challenges and possible solutions with clarity and concision."

– Lauren B., Head of Customer Success

"You are an incredible designer, and on top of it, you have the hunger and drive to make this product what it needs to be. You are absolutely killing it in all ways, including being an amazing leader."

– Diana P., Lead Product Designer
